TRAINING BULLETIN

Introduction to Fire Officer

Introduction to Fire Officer is the first in a new series addressing command and management in today's fire service. The goal is to give new and prospective officers the skills necessary to effectively manage and lead their companies and departments in the challenges of the rapidly changing fire service. Topics include assuming the role of company officer, introduction to leadership and management, fire service organization legal issues facing the fire service, communications, health and safety, incident management emergency response, on scene management and communications, and strategy/tactics for single company operations. This Course replaces Preparing for Command.

The course consists of 27 hours of training presented on as follows:
