STARTING SALARY/RANGE: $38,919 Oneida County Government

VACANCIES: There is currently one (1) vacancy in the Oneida County Department of Social Services, Utica, NY. The eligible list, established as a result of this examination, will be used to fill this vacancy and any other appropriate vacancies which may occur in this title under the jurisdiction of the Oneida County Commissioner of Personnel.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must meet the minimum qualifications on or before the date of the examination.

Candidates must have full-time, permanent competitive status for a period of eighteen (18) months as a Supervising Support Investigator or thirty (30) months as a Confidential Support Investigator in the Oneida County Department of Social Services immediately preceding the date of this examination.

DUTIES: This position exists in the Department of Social Services, and has responsibility to assist the Child Support Unit Supervisor in the administration of the support investigative functions of the Department. The incumbent performs related work as required.

SENIORITY CREDIT: Computation of seniority points will begin from the date of original entry in the permanent, full-time classified service of the jurisdiction in which promotion is sought, followed by continuous service, preceding the establishment of the eligible list. Points will be added to an eligible score, as follows:

*Less than 1 year-	0 points
*1 year up to 6 years -	1 point
*Over 6 years up to 11 years -	2 points
*Over 11 years up to 16 years -	3 points
*Over 16 years up to 21 years -	4 points
*Over 21 years up to 26 years -	5 points
*Over 26 years -	6 points

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION: There will be a written test which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. The written test will be designed to evaluate knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

- 1. Administrative Techniques and Practices - These questions test for a knowledge of management techniques and practices used in directing or assisting in directing a program component or an organizational segment. Questions cover such areas as interpreting policies, making decisions based on the context of the position in the organization, coordinating programs or projects, communicating with employees or the public, planning employee training, and researching and evaluating areas of concern.
- 2. Investigating and Evaluating Financial Resources - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices used in determining the existence of various types of assets and other financial resources and determining the value and availability of assets.
- 3. Laws, Rules and Regulations Related to Child Support - These questions test for knowledge of federal and state policy, laws, rules, and regulations related to child support.
- 4. Preparing Written Material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

5. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

CALCULATORS ARE RECOMMENDED: Unless specifically prohibited, candidates are permitted to use QUIET, hand-held, solar- or battery-powered calculators ONLY. Devices with typewriter keyboards, such as cell phones, computers or devices which can be hooked up to a computer, spell-checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries and any similar devices are PROHIBITED.

TEST GUIDE: The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information contained in the publication "How to Take a Written Test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available online at: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm.
