IN ORDER TO TRANSFER OWNERSHIP OF A LEGALLY OWNED GUN OF A DECEASED PERSON, FOLLOW THE OPTIONS LISTED BELOW:

OPTION 1

- A: Verify whether or not an estate proceeding has ever been commenced in a Surrogate Court for the deceased. If a proceeding has been established, you should contact that Court and obtain a “Certificate of Appointment”. In New York State there is a $5.00 fee for the Certificate.

If no proceeding has been commenced on behalf of the decedent in a Surrogate’s Court, you should discuss the matter with an attorney or personnel from the Surrogate’s Court.

The Pistol Permit Office will require a “Certificate of Appointment” from a Surrogate Court having jurisdiction over the decedent’s estate and it will be up to you to take whatever steps are necessary to obtain the certificate.

- B: A Bill of Sale (Transfer) from the Fiduciary of the Estate.
All gun information: Make, Caliber and Serial Number.
- C: Copy of the decedent’s death certificate.
and
The decedent’s pistol license number and/or permit.

OPTION 2

If you do not wish to commence any type of an Estate Proceeding, you may transfer the guns through a licensed New York State Dealer’s book. A receipt from that dealer will be used to transfer ownership
